Here is the difference in what we do!

The mission of the Lime Creek Nature Center is to develop an awareness and appreciation of our natural world through conservation and education.

Funding for the education program, internships, and displays is supported by memberships, grants, and donations.

The Foundation Board is made of 11-21 volunteers who serve as advisors, support, and advocates.

Cerro Gordo County Conservation (CGCC) is responsible for the enhancement and development of natural resources on county owned properties. (including Lime Creek)

CGCC employs 10 full-time staff who manage parks, wildlife areas, roadsides, and the education program/nature center.

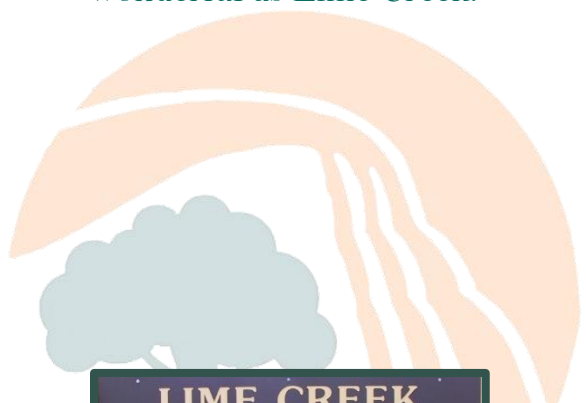

Funding for salaries, operations, and capital purchases is supported by tax dollars and grants.

The Conservation Board is 5 residents appointed by the BOS who set policies.

WHY YOUR OTHERS HAVE JOINED THE FOUNDATION BOARD...

"I wanted to help support the nature center and to introduce others to the center, in thanks for all the enjoyment the center has given me over the years."

"I like the "behind the scenes" knowledge. I enjoy having a vote in how the funds are spent for educational programs. I am very proud as a community member, that Mason City has a location as wonderful as Lime Creek."
